Our History

Regina Multicultural Council (RMC) is a non-profit organization that was founded in 1965 as the Regina Folk Arts Council, with a mandate to develop folk arts and other projects for the province's Diamond Jubilee and Canada's Centennial. In 1973, the organization adopted its current name and today acts as an umbrella organization for over 30 member groups that represent approximately 10,000 people.

RMC is always seeking community feedback, and we welcome YOUR comments:

Please let us know how we can better serve the multicultural community!

RMC Mandate

To educate the public about different cultures and foster positive relations between communities through increasing public knowledge and appreciation of different ethnic groups' art, culture, language and traditions.

What We Do

Regina Multicultural Council is proud of the strides we have made within the community, in partnership with our member groups and other organizations that share our vision of promoting culture in the City of Regina.

RMC supports and encourages our members in their activities, as well as our own. Our combined initiatives provide opportunities for the residents of Regina to participate in a wide range of cultural activities throughout the year.

Now in its 4th year, "Bringing a Little Mosaic to You" is a program organized by RMC that matches cultural performing groups with care homes throughout Regina, so that care home residents can experience the magic of the Mosaic Festival.

Our Continuing Education Scholarship assists youth who are pursuing secondary education, while recognizing their involvement in the multicultural community.

MOSAIC

The "jewel in our crown" and also our most well-known event is Saskatchewan's longest running festival, MOSAIC: A FESTIVAL OF CULTURES.

Mosaic is a historic Regina tradition that has grown into a 3-day festival bringing in performers and entertainers from around our province, our country, and the world. In early June of each year, a kaleidoscope of pavilions present a city-wide festival of food, music, performance, & tradition!
