

Regina Multicultural Council Continuing Education Scholarships 2017 Edition

Each year the youth of Regina's multicultural community contribute their time, talents and energy to making multiculturalism thrive in our City.

As part of our mandate of promoting multiculturalism through cooperation and mutual understanding among all cultural and ethnic groups in Regina, the Regina Multicultural Council (RMC) is proud to recognize the outstanding achievements of these youth by offering the Regina Multicultural Council Continuing Education Scholarships. Three scholarships are awarded, valued at $1,500, $1,000 and $500. These scholarships are intended to encourage significant achievement in high school courses, recognize outstanding participation within a cultural community, your school, and the community at large, and assist a student in furthering his or her education.

Applications are now being accepted for the 2017 Regina Multicultural Council's Continuing Education Scholarships. Students must be graduating Grade 12 in June 2017, must be actively involved in a RMC member organization, and enrolled in a post-secondary program.

The deadline for application is NOON - Friday July 14, 2017.

Further information is available by contacting the Regina Multicultural Council office by telephone at 306-757-5990, by email at rmc.pa@sasktel.net or by visiting our website at www.reginamulticulturalcouncil.ca.

Please assist the RMC by distributing this information to the youth of your community and help us applaud the efforts of our future leaders.

Regina Multicultural Council Continuing Education Scholarships 2017 Edition

Since 1965, the Regina Multicultural Council (RMC) has been dedicated to advancing multiculturalism through cooperation and mutual understanding among all cultural and ethnic groups in Regina. The RMC is comprised of 50 multicultural associations involving over 30,000 individuals. All of the RMC's members, and the citizens of Regina, benefit from the year-round projects of the RMC. The RMC is proud to recognize the accomplishments of our youth by offering the Regina Multicultural Council's Continuing Education Scholarships.

The Regina Multicultural Council's Continuing Education Scholarships are intended to:

- Encourage significant achievement in high school courses

Regina Multicultural Council Scholarship Committee

2054 Broad Street | Regina, Saskatchewan | S4P 1Y3

How will the scholarship be awarded?

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit and cultural community involvement.

When will I learn if I have been awarded a scholarship?

Letters of notification are sent to all applicants whether or not they receive a scholarship. Everyone should receive a letter after August 15, 2017. Once you receive your letter, you will have 30 days to notify the RMC as to whether or not you will accept the scholarship. If a student decides not to accept a scholarship, it will be awarded to an alternate student or will be reopened for applications. If you accept the scholarship you are required to provide your student identification number and name and address of the post secondary institute you will be attending.

How are the scholarships paid?

RMC scholarships will be applied to your student account in September 2017. Scholarship funds must be used for tuition or books.

Thank you for applying. The RMC wishes all applicants good luck and thanks you for your participation in multiculturalism!
