Member in Good Standing:

All approved members for 2020 will be named “Members in Good Standing”. If there are opportunities and your member group signs up for participation and fails to commit to the opportunity or exhibits behaviour that is unsatisfactory to the protocol or prestige of the event the member group will not be named a member in good standing and it is possible they will not be asked to participate at the next opportunity.

Is it the responsibility of this applicant to maintain liaison with the Regina Multicultural Council through its President and Secretary. The two designated representatives on record in the RMC office will be the only persons who may vote on behalf of the members. The Regina Multicultural Council will send communications and notices intended for the member organization to such designated representatives. Changes will only become effective when the RMC office receives written notice of these changes signed by the President of the member organization.
